SOME SELLING TO REALIZE

CLOSING ONLY SLIGHTLY BE-LOW THE BEST.

New York, July 8.-The forces in the New York, July 8.—The forces in the market making for higher prices made a stand today against the reaction that developed yesterday and turned the course of prices upward again. Support was in evidence from the outset preferred. Rubber Goods Preferred. Rubber Goods Preferred. Tenn. C. & I. and although considerable selling to realize had to be absorbed in the early dealings, carrying prices backward several times there offerings diminished and opened the way for the late advance. The midday period was decidedly dull and the movement of prices indecisive either way. The events to which yesterday's reaction was attributed continued in increased force today, but they proved without effect on the recovery of prices.

Total sales for the day, 454,100 shares. the recovery of prices.

The early support was derived from the sympathetic effect of the strength of the local traction stocks, and the leaders of the week's market were con-spicuous buyers and bidders up of these stocks. With the impression thus created that a leadership had been re-sumed for an advance, the pressure re-laxed. London afforded little assistance here, a feeling of disquiet over the money situation provided something of a burden for that market to carry. The reports over night of the flood situation in the southwest were of a more serious complexion than was the case yesterday, and the drawing out of the con-test in the Democratic convention might have aggravated the doubts over the outcome which were said to be an influence in yesterday's reaction.

But these facts were ignored and no attention was paid to the decided strength in the wheat market. The upward movement, which spread throughout the stock market in the afternoon had its incention in Pacedian. ernoon had its inception in Reading, which was lifted steadily upward on the continu d absorption of large blocks of the stock. There was no apparent news to account for the strength of this ck. The other coalers, however, made more moderate response in sympathy. The market was helped by the very large gain in cash reserves. Sub-treasury operations have contributed $5,825,000 to the cash supply of the banks. This includes government interest payments and represents also the receipts its and represents also the receipts of Klondike gold, which have gained a considerable volume and may be ex-pected to furnish a source of additional supply for some time to come. Reading's 2-point advance continued to lift the market until the slight recessions just before the closing on profit-taking. The closing was therefore rather irreg-ular, but only slightly below the best. Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $3,870,000. United States bonds were unchanged

CHIEF INTEREST CENTERS IN CROP SITUATION.

New York, July 8 .- Dun's Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Midsummer quiet prevails in mercantile trades, and the past week has witnessed much idle machinery at manufacturing plants, yet the tenor of reports from leading citizens indicates Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Trade and industry have been at Oats followed other grains. September closed ½ lower at 32½.

Provisions were easy on larger receipts of hogs and higher prices at the yards. At the close September pork was down 12½, lard was off 2½@10 and ribs were down 5@7½.

The leading futures ranged as follows:

The leading futures ranged as follows: by reports of excessive moisture in the winter wheat belt and too cool weather for corn. Reports from cotton and oats, however, are favorable. Railway oats, however, are favorable. Railway earnings confirm earlier reports of good June reports in the probable increase of 36 cents in gross earnings. Wool continues the strongest of the textiles. Shifting from the old to the new clip, accompanied by an advance of from 1 to 3 cents per pound, and considerable buying by manufacturers here and at the west. Primary receipts are strong and two-thirds of the Montana clip is reported already sold. The lumber reported already sold. The lumber trade is rather quiet as a whole. Business failures in the United States for the week ending July 7 number 179, against 204 last week, 154 in the like week in 1903, 195 in 1902, 199 in 1901 and 221 in 1900.
